

Energy management, Natural Ventilation, Use of Rainwater

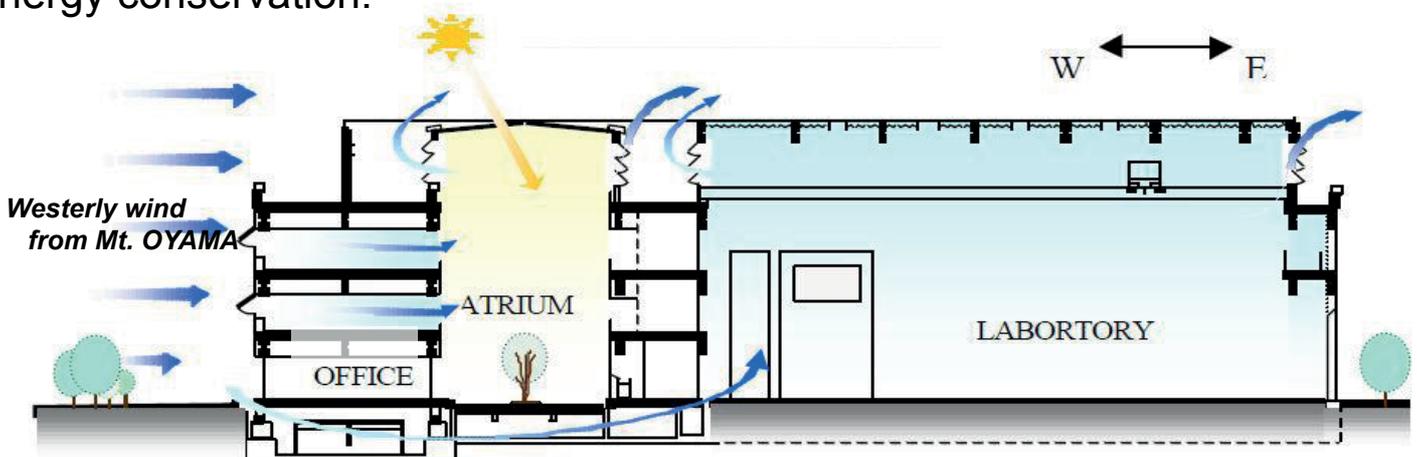

Indoor Environmental Technology

We aim to implement low-carbon construction and harness natural energy.

Natural Ventilation System

Natural ventilation uses the wind environment around our building to achieve energy conservation.

Rainwater Using System

Rainwater harvested from the roof of the building is stored in an underground pit

